

View in browser

College of Sciences & Mathematics Newsletter - February 2019

Featured News

A Team Effort

A local alumna at Valley View Elementary arranged a visit with A-State science faculty and students to encourage her fifth-grade students to take an interest in the science, technology, engineering and mathematics fields.

→ MORE DETAILS

Faculty Spotlight

Ahn Published in Journal

Dr. Jeongho Ahn, associate professor of mathematics, and A-State alumnus Jay Mayfield '14 published an article on the mathematical approaches to dynamic frictionless contact of nonlinear viscoelastic springs in the Springer NoDEA Journal. Mayfield is a CoSM alumnus and is pursuing a Ph.D. at Iowa State.

Faculty Spotlight

Huss, Tunno Present 'What are Facts?'

Dr. Ferebee Tunno, associate professor of statistics, and Dr. Martin Huss, associate professor of botany, gave a joint presentation Feb. 11, in the Reng Student Union White River Room, about how mathematical reasoning and the scientific method help us better understand the natural and physical worlds.

NYIT at A-State

Making The Delta Healthier

Osteopathic students at NYIT at A-State are training to help make communities better. Subscribers to the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette may enjoy the recent feature on the program, which highlights some of the efforts to bring physicians to rural areas.

Alumni/Student Spotlight

Green Tree Frog is Subject of Presentation

Here in Arkansas, you may have seen green tree frogs clinging to windows on well-lit buildings by their large, sticky toe pads. Join A-State alumna Jessica Harken '18 and her husband Cole, a current student, as they present "Hyla Cinerea: The Green Tree Frog."

Contact Us

A-State Alumni Association

Cooper Alumni Center
2600 Alumni Blvd.

P.O. Box 1990
State University, AR 72467

Phone: (870) 972-2586
Toll-Free: (888) 225-8343
alumni@AState.edu

A-State Alumni Association
P.O. Box 1990,
State University, AR 72467 United States
Unsubscribe